STIPENDS, LEAVES AND OTHER BENEFITS
For the program year 2002-2003, stipends for Stanford residents approximately increased by 10% from last year. Partial list of benefits provided to resident and their dependents are listed below. These plans are subject to periodic review, including alteration or termination of benefits or change of carriers. Please visit the web site at http://gme.stanford.edu for details and eligibility requirements.

Stipends

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PGY-II</th>
<th>$43,303</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PGY-III</td>
<td>$45,958</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PGY-IV</td>
<td>$48,447</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Personal Time Off and Sick Leaves

Residents have 3 weeks of paid personal time off per year (15 working days, not counting weekends). Dermatology residents may take their personal time off as 3 separate five-day blocks or as a ten-day block and a five-day block.

Residents are also granted 4 weeks of sick leave (20 working days) per year, if needed. Salary will continue, offset by state disability or worker’s compensation benefits.

Other Benefits

1. Health, dental, vision, disability and life insurance for resident and his/her dependents.

2. Educational benefits of $1,000 per full time resident may be used for medical books, meeting registration, computer software or other educational related expenses.

3. Housing allowance up to $3,000 for residents who are commencing training at Stanford for the first time, subject to all the appropriate taxes.

4. Initial California medical license fee up to the amount of $805, if reimbursement is requested prior to September 1 of the PGY II year.

5. California medical license renewal fee up to $600, subject to eligibility.

7. Lab coats with laundry service, pagers, and some University privileges are also available.

More specific information regarding the Residency Program, as well as local housing information is available from Ms. Ann Dohn of the Stanford Health Services Graduate Medical Education Office 650-723-5948, or web site http://gme.stanford.edu